Monday, October 22, 2007

WOODSTOCK, ON – Sherri Stevens, President and owner of SRG (Stevens Resource Group), a regional human resources firm, has been named as one of Canada's Top Women Entrepreneurs in the 9th annual PROFIT W100 published by PROFIT: Your Guide to Business Success for the second consecutive year, moving up from last year's ranking of #27.

Ranking of Canada's Top Women Entrepreneurs by the annual revenue of their firms, the PROFIT W100 profiles the country's most successful female business owners. Published in the November issue of PROFIT and online at www.profitmagazine.ca, the PROFIT W100 is Canada's largest annual celebration of entrepreneurial achievement by women.

"Harry Truman once said, you can accomplish anything in life, provided that you do not mind who gets the credit", said Sherri Stevens, President and owner of SRG (Stevens Resource Group). "Credit belongs to my entire team at SRG. Without their dedication, strength and passion we would not have accomplished such an achievement."

"The PROFIT W100 are role models for entrepreneurs across Canada," says Ian Portsmouth, editor of PROFIT. "Their ability to build significant, profitable and sustainable enterprises is inspiring, and their management techniques are worth observing by anyone who wants to achieve success in business."
